Kalleske's Clarry's blend is a value-killer most years, and this release is no exception. It's got lots of ripe, fleshy, jam-like fruit flavour, but there's enough personality laid over the top to elevate it beyond the norm... It's another really smart wine from Kalleske.

Campbell Mattinson, the Wine Front, April 12th 2011

"...this is huge, dense, amazingly purple, full of fragrant concentrated fruit and plenty of grip and grab as it fills the mouth – solid, muscle wine which needs a huge steak to get it into the right spot and will thrill big-red wine fans no end.

Tony Love, The Advertiser, April 2011

91 POINTS

"A big chap in a purple suit and glossy black leathers, gushing with rhubarb, plum and Christmas spice".

Tyson Stelzer, WBM Magazine, June 2011

"...this already shows lovely juicy fruit and fleshy palate balanced by fine tannins. There is a lovely sense of place with Kalleske's wines as all wines come from their own vineyards in the north-western Greenock region. Great value!"
