KALLESKE ROSINA ROSÉ 2010

91 Points

James Halliday, Australian Wine Companion 2012 Edition

Named for Rosina, wife of Karl Kalleske, who grew grapes in Greenock from 1838 to the 1880s. From a basis of Grenache with a dash of shiraz and viognier, the Rosina has aromas of strawberry and musk while the palate is full of flavoursome, juicy red fruit with refreshing grapey sweetness enlivened by natural acid.

Ross Nobel, The Courier, October 2010

Nick Stock, Wine 100 May 2011

Produced from Grenache and giving a pale cherry pink color, the 2010 Rosina has a pronounced nose of ripe strawberries and raspberries with an undercurrent of cherry cordial and fresh herbs. Dry, light to medium-bodied with crisp acidity and plenty of juicy berry fruit, it gives a long finish. Drinking now, it should hold its vitality to 2013.

Lisa Perrotti-Brown, The Wine Advocate December 2010
