CLARRY'S

Clarry's is named in honour of my Grandfather, Clarence "Clarry" Kalleske, who farmed the Kalleske vineyards from the late 1920s until his retirement in the 1990s. Clarry was the fourth generation member to tend the vines on our Kalleske family farm, established by his great grandparents who migrated from Prussia to South Australia in 1838 aboard the Prince George. Many years were spent by Clarry pruning, hand-picking and nurturing the vineyards that make up this blend of Grenache, Shiraz, and Mataro, with the oldest of these dating back to 1940. All grapes are entirely sourced from our Kalleske farm situated on the banks of the Greenock Creek in the North-Western Barossa Valley. This is a genuine family estate wine, capturing the splendid fruit of Clarry's vineyards.
