2016 KALLESKE BUCKBOARD DURIF

91 Points

“Well, this is knife and fork stuff, for sure. Dark fruitcake, black fruits, toasted coconut, spice and vanilla, the whole plum duff thing going on. Full bodied, thick open weave tannin, toast and bourbon, acidity firm but not too obvious, and a rich black and toasted fruitcake finish. Certainly it’s a wine for heroes, as it were, but in it’s style, very good”.

Gary Walsh, The Wine Front, August 10 2017

“The first thing that grabs your attention here is the outrageous colour of this wine- intensely vibrant purples - and its impenetrable density. This certified organic, Greenock sub-district, 15 per cent alcohol monster follows through with super-rich aromas that suggest crumbled dark soils and old fashioned boot polish - all rich, chewy, farmhouse rusticity with plum pudding flavours and dry tannins, yet the fruit is so powerful it pushes right through. This will rock anyone who loves full bodied red.”

2016 KALLESKE BUCKBOARD DURIF

“Tasted at the Winestate “Wine of the Year” tasting: This wine is purple, bordering on black in colour. It has big, sensual aromas of plum, fruit cake, spice and blackberry jam. On the palate there are oodles of rich, full, dark, fruit flavours with hints of toasty oak to make it even more appealing. It finishes with big tannins that add muscle to the wine and need plenty of time to soften off and add to the wine’s depth, grace and class. A Keeper! “

Dan Traucki, Wine Assist, Sept 2017

A real classic with its huge “Indian-Ink” -like nose and masses of rich sweet varietal fruit flavours on the oak dominated palate with big tannins.
