Bargain Wine of the Week

"Dark in colour, and complex in character, the fruit here blends seamlessly to offer red and black fruits, loads of spice, complex Provençal herbs and a little salty edge for freshness; lively, fresh and more than just a little bit fun; excellent value. Drink to 2016".

"Ripe, rich, savoury style with developing oak/prune aromas and soft, rounded, flavoursome palate with long, velvety tannins. "One of the best I have seen," enthused one judge".
