KALLESKE CLARRY'S 2010

Gold Medal

MUNDUS VINI BioFach 2012

International Organic Wine Award, Germany

92 POINTS

"...It is deeply coloured smells of ripe blackberry and mulberry fruits, lightly touched up with oak and showing gently nutty spice. The palate takes on a more red-fruit flavour, with impressive depth and juicy appeal, sturdy flowing tannins and impressive balance. It builds weight through the finish, with darker plum and blackberry chiming in. Immense value here!"

Nick Stock – Good Wine Guide 2012

James Halliday, Australian Wine Companion 2012 Edition

"...this is huge, dense, amazingly purple, full of fragrant concentrated fruit and plenty of grip and grab as it fills the mouth – solid, muscle wine which needs a huge steak to get it into the right spot and will thrill big-red wine fans no end.

Tony Love, The Advertiser, April 2011

Kalleske's Clarry's blend is a value-killer most years, and this release is no exception... It's another really smart wine from Kalleske.

Campbell Mattinson, the Wine Front, April 12th 2011

"...lovely juicy fruit and fleshy palate balanced by fine tannins. There is a lovely sense of place with Kalleske's wines as all wines come from their own vineyards in the north-western Greenock region. Great value!"

Christopher Hayes - Eat and Drink Wine March 2011
