

2014 KALLESKE BUCKBOARD DURIF

"A sumptuous, densely packed and finely crafted durif whose deep fragrance of blue flowers, cassis, blueberries and dark plums is handsomely backed by aromatic oak and a hint of minerals. It's smooth and luscious with a depth of dark berries and plums, smoky oak and mineral undertones. Framed by a fine, powdery spine of drying tannins, it finishes with a true length of fruit, a lingering minerality and refreshing acidity".

Jeremy Oliver, Gourmet Traveller Wine

93+ Points

"Loved the 2012 and 2013 Kalleske Buckboard Durif releases. Keen to tuck into the 2014. It keeps the run going. It's thick, tannic, pumped up with fruit and yet generally – if heroically – well shaped. Licorice, dark chocolate, blackberries and leather. Fresh. Intense. Very tannic. And very good".

Campbell Mattinson, The Wine Front

"Rustic and earthy, it is an apt varietal choice for the venerable Kalleske family to pay respect to the horse-drawn buckboard in its early farming for more than a century at Greenock in the Barossa's north west. With the Kalleske Buckboard Single Vineyard Barossa Valley Durif 2014, winemaker Troy Kalleske has fashioned a bold, rich and flavoursome red, full bodied with concentrated flavours. Try it with a roast".
