WINE OF AUSTRALIA

Florentine

Since 1853, the Kalleske family have been farming and growing grapes on their family estate at Moppa near the village of Greenock in the North-Western Barossa Valley. After six generations of grape growing, seventh generation family members, Troy and Tony Kalleske established the Kalleske winery producing traditionally handcrafted, sustainable and natural, estate grown wines with a true sense of place.

Florentine gains its name from Caroline 'Florentine' Kalleske, the first daughter of Johann Georg Kalleske who migrated to Australia in 1838.

This single vineyard Chenin Blanc, sourced from mature vines on the Kalleske farm, is a vibrant fruit-driven wine. These old vines planted in 1988 are one of the few remaining Chenin Blanc vineyards in the Barossa Valley. Grapes were harvested in the cool of night and gently pressed for fermentation to provide a naturally varietal yet complex wine.
