"The '09 Moppa is a dark and deep, brooding Shiraz that also trades on a touch of Viognier and Petit Verdot to add colour and movement. The colour's dark and inky, and the nose smells of ripe blackberry and dark toasted spices, some hazelnutty oak and sweet-smelling earth. The palate's ripe and swarthy, showing plenty of deep black-fruit flavour, blood plums and hard brown spices, all rolled out on thick, soft and hearty Barossa tannin. Good balance and ready to drink".
